

LETTER OF THE DAY:

Z z

EARLY LITERACY TIP:

Blowing bubbles is great for developing visual tracking skills in small babies, hand-eye coordination in older babies, and for strengthening lips and mouths in toddlers to form word sounds.

All of which will strengthen their reading and writing skills later in life.

Put your Scarves up High

Put your scarves up high, put your scarves down low,

Put your scarves in the middle and wiggle just so.

Put your elbows in front, put your elbows in back

Put your elbows to the side and quack, quack, quack!

See you later, alligator

See you later, alligator (Wave goodbye)

In a while, crocodile

Give a hug, ladybug (Hug yourself)

Blow a kiss, jellyfish (Blow a kiss)

See you soon, big baboon

Out the door, dinosaur

Take care, polar bear

Wave goodbye, butterfly (Wave goodbye)
