

LETTER OF
THE DAY: W

THEME:
WINTER

Literacy Tip: Rhymes are important! Even though young children may not understand the meanings of the rhymes, it's important for them to hear them. Rhymes expose children to words and rhythm that are not used in everyday conversation. Researchers have found that children who know rhymes find it easier to learn to read.

SONGS

Welcome Song:

Hello, Friend

Hello, friend

Hello, friend

Hello, friend

It's time to say hello

Actions: American Sign Language

Dance Like Snowflakes

Dance like snowflakes, dance like snowflakes

In the air, in the air

Whirling, twirling snowflakes

Whirling, twirling snowflakes

Everywhere, everywhere

Let's All Do a Little Clapping

Let's all do a little clapping (x3)

Let's all do a little clapping

Let's all do a little clapping

For holiday cheer.

Repeat with: Bouncing, twirling, shaking

Goodbye Song:

Goodbye, Friend

Goodbye, friend

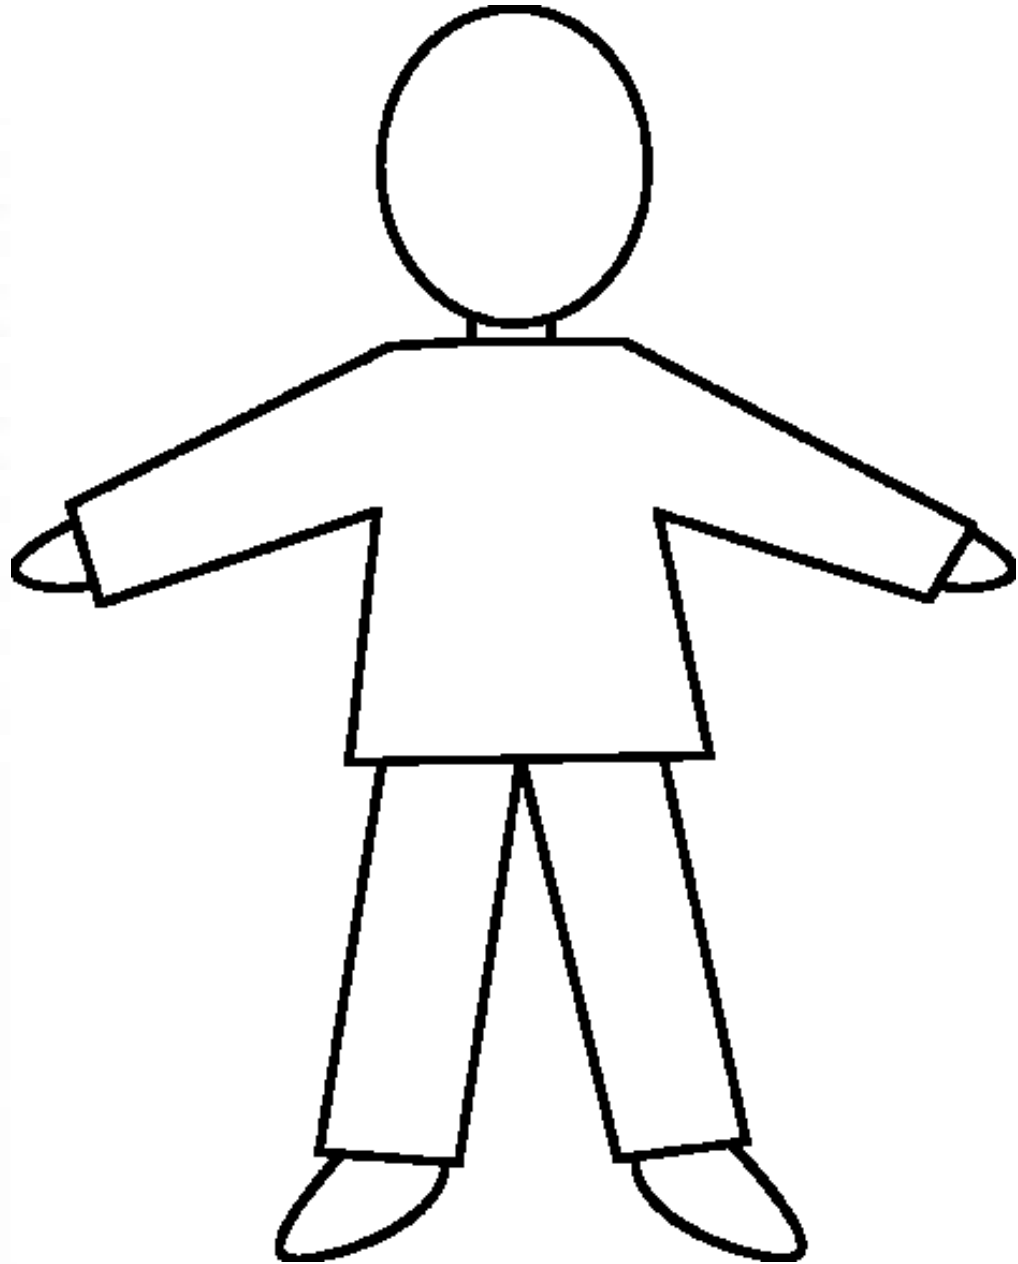

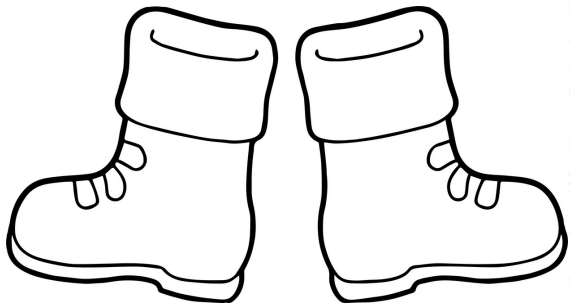

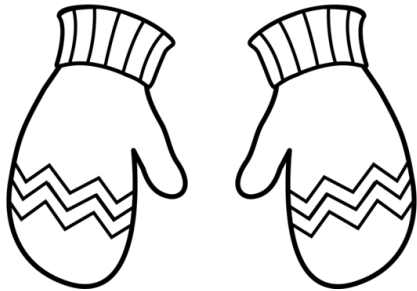

Goodbye, friend

Goodbye, friend

It's time to say goodbye

Actions: American Sign Language

Dressing for Winter

Color the winter clothes, cut them out, and paste them on the child. Give them a face and decorate their coat and pants.
